

BIO

Susan Boster is a Channel, Medium, and Business Intuitive who works with heart-centered, soul-led, conscious clients seeking guidance, clarity, and direction in their businesses and personal lives. She also supports those wanting to reconnect with loved ones who have passed, offering healing, love, and the powerful reminder that our departed are still with us—just in a different form.

With over 25 years of business leadership experience and a deep foundation in channeling and mediumship, Susan was called to this work by her spirit team to be of service to both the spirit world and those navigating life in physical form. She works with clients globally through private and group sessions, her signature Channeling and Mediumship certification, and her Business Intuitive program—a blend of strategic grounding and spiritual insight that helps entrepreneurs build aligned, purpose-driven businesses. Her clients include TV Personalities and business founders.

PERSONAL STORY

In the world of the Spiritual Entrepreneur, one learns very quickly that when Spirit calls, you answer; if you don't, they will keep calling and shifting things until you do.

For over 20 years, I traversed the spiritual realm, commencing my journey as a Shamanic Energy healer. My sessions often led to encounters with spirits, offering messages/guidance that led to profound healing and insights for my clients. Balancing my spiritual endeavors with over 25 years of corporate leadership roles worked until I experienced three layoffs in a row from start-up companies whose founders' values and integrity no longer aligned with mine. At the same time, through a number of synchronicities, my path to Channeling and Mediumship unfolded...the opportunity to work for Spirit, delivering their messages of guidance, direction and healing in all areas a client's life, and as the mediumship bridge connecting the physical and spirit realms, offering client's healing and connection with those who now reside in the spirit world.

A deeper spiritual awakening and calling propelled me into full-time entrepreneurship. Channeling messages for clients, along with Mediumship. Following the passing of my father, my Mediumship skills exploded, fostering a profound connection between the realms. Embracing Spirit's loud call and my passion for being of service, I began teaching Channeling. Once again Spirit called, by gifting all of my students Mediumship, nudging me to expand into Mediumship instruction. Today I teach a Channeling and Mediumship Certification program with the best business partners, and ones with the highest integrity and ethics...Spirit, my guidance team and the Conscious Universe.
